

South Burnett Training Awards – Equity Award

We recognise that in some instances, accessing training may be impeded by a range of factors, including:

1. A low literacy or numeracy skill set;
2. Limited and/or low levels of skill and/or education;
3. A disability of any form;
4. Your background may be culturally diverse or literacy limited;
5. Your status as a refugee;
6. Returning to work after long-term unemployment;
7. Significant or ongoing health issues; and
8. Returning to the workforce after significant change of circumstances, having been a care-giver or undertaking family responsibilities.

To be eligible:

Please address the criteria below, and complete Section 1 (About You)

To enter:

- Complete both the questions below and include a document addressing all the criteria – answers should be submitted in a separate document.
- Include up to 3 good quality images of you.
- Forward the information to us by closing date:- midnight 22 January 2024 either via email to Nicola@lgmediaservices.com.au or via paper based to South Burnett Training Awards PO Box 373 Kingaroy QLD 4610

Section 1 – About you:

Your Full Name
Your Address
Your email Address
Your phone number
Registered Training Provider
What is your estimated completion date?

Photography Release:

Please acknowledge these conditions below, by signing or completing as required.

I give permission for photographs of myself to be taken and to be used for promotional purposes.
If I am under the age of 18, my parent or care giver grants permission for my likeness/photograph to be used.
My full name or caregivers name (if under 18)
Signature (Electronic is accepted)

Section 2 – What is your expectation of your career and training:

Tell us about:

- Are you returning to the workplace, and if so, what has been your experience.
- What have you overcome in order to return or enter the workplace.
- What training do you think would assist in your career?

Please do not exceed 500 words on this answer.

Section 3 – Communication in the workplace and other about training:

Explain:

Returning to the workplace or entering, while overcoming barriers can take a toll on your ability to communicate with employers or your workmates. Please tell us about your experiences.

Please do not exceed 500 words on this answer.

Section 4 – Telling others about your training outcomes:

Explain:

Accessing training while dealing with a range of issues can be difficult. What services were you able to access or what further initiatives do you think would assist you in the workplace and to access the training you need to advance your career?

Please do not exceed 500 words on this answer.

Section 5 – What do you bring to the table:

You may wish to include information about:

- Tell us about your experiences, what you do well both in the workplace and personally. What do you need your community to know, so they may be able to understand the difficulties you have experienced.

Now is your opportunity to show us more:

- This is your opportunity to show us up to 5 pages of supporting information, including newspaper stories, certificates, newsletters etc. Images/supporting documentation should be included in PDF format.
- Photos can be either jpg or png. Please do not embed them in your application.
- We apologise but we are unable to accept multimedia (TikTok, YouTube etc) entries for this section.

BEFORE YOU SUBMIT!

Have you completed Section One:

About You Yes / No

Photography Release Yes / No

Have you completed Section Two:

What is your expectation of your career and training Yes / No

Have you completed Section Three:

Communication in the workplace and other about training Yes / No

Have you completed Section Four:

Telling others about your training outcomes Yes / No

Have you completed Section Five:

What do you bring to the table Yes / No

Have you included:

Your photographs of you? Yes / No

Any further supporting information? Yes / No